Pastor's Reflections for December

Each year Thanksgiving ushers in the busiest season of the year. From now until our New Year's Celebration is over, our calendars will be filled with activities. In the process, the meaning of the events from which the celebrations stem can be lost in the business. I encourage you to take a moment each day to reflect on the meaning of the season and to give God a few minutes each day to give Him praise and thanksgiving. Praise Him for all the spiritual blessings that you have, because of His Son, Jesus. Praise Him for all of your material blessings. Praise Him for family and friends.

As wonderful as this season of the year is, it can sometimes become exhausting. One of the things it can exhaust is our finances. There are a multitude of good causes that seek our help each year. I encourage you to pray diligently about the ones God wishes for you to support. That said, I would like to suggest a few areas to which you should give special consideration. As you know Christmas is the time we receive our Lottie Moon Christmas Offering. Let me encourage you to give generously to this offering. It goes toward the support of our foreign missionaries around the world. It is the primary way we seek to show the world that the greatest need of every tribe and nation is to come to an understanding of who Christ is and to receive Him as Lord and Savior. This is the greatest need the world has. I also encourage you to give generously to the church budget and enable the church to enter the New Year above budget.

Finally, I urge you to give the gift of yourself to the One who has called you out of the darkness into the light. Make yourself totally available to Him during the coming year and you may be surprised at what He may do with and for you.

In closing, on behalf of Helen and myself, I wish you and yours the happiest of holidays. Have a Merry, Christ filled Christmas. We love you and appreciate you allowing us to serve you for the past three months. I look forward to the serving you until God leads you to the man He has already selected to be your next pastor.

In Christian Love,

Dennis

THANK YOU

Dear Lee Road Baptist Church,
Thank you so much for the prayers, visits and kindness shown during the passing of my precious mom.

You are such a loving church and the comfort you gave us at this very hard time was a blessing.

In Christ,
Jean & George Blackwell
